

Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

The wheat raised from the good seed is the children of the kingdom, the Disciples of Christ converted by his word (by completing a full focused tribulation by having faith in Jesus). The tares are not bad church members, but bad men/women (mainly by choosing to stay in their natural unconscious state instead of spiritually evolving); those who have been under the influence of the wicked one. The righteous and wicked are to remain in the earth together. The righteous are not to exterminate the wicked (they are to allow free will between all individuals in choosing how to live their individual lives, although they will show testimony towards achieving spiritual resurrection for those seeking into it). The evil (lower consciousness) and the good (higher consciousness) will be mixed until judgment day. Then all shall be gathered at the throne of judgment. The righteous (those who are at the Book of Life resonance and above) shall inherit the kingdom. All that are wicked (those choosing to remain in their fallen state of consciousness) shall be cast out of the kingdom (after physical death, they cannot return into the ascending peaceful new earth anymore). An eternal separation shall take place (new earth 5th dimension consciousness in current ascension cycle, non-physical dimension spirit realm for quiet contemplation and reflection between lives, and old earth 3rd dimension lower consciousness reality (fallen state)).

Rev 20:10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are (fallen State), and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.
